Venue Location

Situated in the heart of central London, Prince Philip House is the perfect setting for your summer season celebration.

Consisting of a number of gardens along Carlton House Terrace, Waterloo West Garden and Stirling Square Garden can be hired as an extension to our room hire.

These secluded gardens were developed as a part of the former royal garden of St James's Palace, when Regency architect John Nash built the surrounding Carlton House Terrace. The gardens underwent extensive restoration in 2008, their 19th century character and charm have been retained with serpentine paths, trees and shrubs to create a space of tranquility within the hustle of the City.

The gardens are hireable during the day or for evening events finishing before 10pm.
