AT PRINCE PHILIP HOUSE

Your love story begins here

Situated in the heart of central London, Prince Philip House is the perfect setting for a quintessentially London celebration.

The building, designed by John Nash & completed in 1836, sits on the exclusive Carlton House Terrace, which is part of the Crown Estate & boasts views of The Mall, St. James's Park & The London Eye.

Inside, a bright & modern interior with its stand-out feature, an original sweeping staircase, providing the perfect photo opportunity.

Supporting a cause

Prince Philip House is home to the Royal Academy of Engineering.

By holding your wedding here you are supporting the most successful & talented engineers from across the profession to advance & promote excellence in engineering, for the benefit of society.

Registered Charity: 293074
